FRANKLIN PTA

ARTICLE I: Name

The name of this organization is the Franklin Parent-Teacher Association (PTA), West Allis, Wisconsin. It is a local PTA/PTSA unit organized under the authority of the Wisconsin Congress of Parents and Teachers (Wisconsin PTA), a branch of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers (National PTA).

#ARTICLE II: Purposes

Section 1. The Objects of the Franklin PTA, in common with those of the National PTA and the Wisconsin PTA are:

- a. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, community, and place of worship,
- b. To raise the standards of home life,
- c. To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth,
- d. To bring into closer relation the home and the school, that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth,
- e. To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

Section 2. The Objects of the National PTA, the Wisconsin PTA and the Franklin PTA are promoted through an advocacy and educational program directed toward parents, teachers, and the general public; are developed through conferences, committees, projects, and programs; and governed and qualified by the basic policies set forth in Article III.

Section 3. The organization is organized exclusively for the charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter "Internal Revenue Code").

#ARTICLE III: Basic Policies

The following are basic policies of the Franklin PTA in common with those of the National PTA and the Wisconsin PTA:

- a. The organization shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan.
- b. The organization shall work with schools and community to provide quality education for all children and youth and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process establishing school policy, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to boards of education, state education authorities, and local education authorities.

- c. The organization shall work to promote the health and welfare of children and youth and shall seek to promote collaboration between parents, schools, and the community at large.
- d. No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.
- e. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- f. Upon the dissolution of this organization, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the organization, the remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit funds, foundations, or organizations that have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and whose purposes are in accordance with those of the National PTA.
- g. The organization or members in their official capacities shall not, directly or indirectly, participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.

#ARTICLE IV: Constituent Organizations

Section 1. The constituent organizations of National PTA include

- a. Branches of the National PTA that have been established in the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and among schools for American dependents in Europe and the Pacific hereinafter called state PTAs.
- b. Local PTAs (Parent Teacher Associations) or PTSAs (Parent Teacher Student Associations) organized under the authority of the state PTAs in organized area; and
- c. Local PTAs/PTSAs organized under the direct authority of National PTA when there is no state PTA/PTSA.

Section 2. The articles of organization of a constituent organization include (a) the bylaws of such organization and (b) the certificate of incorporation or articles of incorporation of such organization (in cases in which the organization is a corporation) or the articles of association by whatever name (in cases in which the organization exists as an unincorporated association).

- Section 3. The national board of directors shall determine criteria for establishing constituent organizations and setting standards for continuing affiliation with National PTA.
- Section 4. There shall be no proxy voting by any constituent organization of National PTA.
- Section 5. The purposes and basic policies of National PTA shall in every case also be the purposes and basic policies of each constituent organization.
- Section 6. Each constituent organization shall adopt bylaws for the government of the organization as may be approved by the Wisconsin PTA. Such bylaws shall not be in conflict with National PTA or state PTA bylaws. Such bylaws shall include an article on amendments and shall include a provision establishing a quorum.
- Section 7. The bylaws of all constituent organizations are subject to review by the National PTA Bylaws and Policy Committee.
- Section 8. Each officer or board member of a constituent organization shall be a member of a local PTA within its area.
- Section 9. A PTA member shall not serve as a voting member of a constituent organization's board at the local, council, district, or region level while serving as a paid employee of, or under contract to, that constituent organization.
- Section 10. The members of the nominating committee for officers of a constituent organization shall be elected by membership, board of directors, executive board, or executive committee.

#ARTICLE V: Local PTAs/PTSAs

- Section 1. Local PTAs shall be organized and chartered under the authority of the Wisconsin PTA in the area in which the local PTA functions, in conformity with such rules and regulations, not in conflict with the National PTA Bylaws, as the Wisconsin PTA may in its bylaws prescribe. The Wisconsin PTA shall issue to each local PTA in its area an appropriate charter evidencing the due organization and good standing of the local PTA.

A local PTA in good standing is one that:

- a. Adheres to the Objects and basic policies of the PTA;
- b. Remits the national portion of the dues through the state PTA to reach the national office by dates designated by the National PTA;
- c. Has bylaws approved according to the procedures of each state; and
- d. Has five (5) or more members to organize a local unit and ten (10) or more members to sustain good standing status of existing unit;
- e. Remits state and national portion of the dues to the Wisconsin PTA annually starting November 1 and periodically thereafter;
- f. Reviews or revises their bylaws every three (3) years and submits four (4) copies to the Wisconsin PTA Bylaws Committee for approval.

- Section 2. Each local PTA shall keep such permanent books of account and records as shall be sufficient to establish the items of gross income, receipts, and disbursements of the organization, including, specifically, the number of its members, the dues collected from its members, and the amount of dues remitted to the Wisconsin PTA. Such books of account and records shall, at all reasonable times, be open to inspection by an authorized representative of the Wisconsin PTA or, where directed by the committee on state and national relationships, by a duly authorized representative of the National PTA.
- Section 3. The charter of a local PTA shall be subject to withdrawal and the status of such organization as a local PTA shall be subject to termination, in the manner and under the circumstances provided by the bylaws of the Wisconsin PTA.
- Section 4. Each local PTA is obligated, upon withdrawal of its charter by the Wisconsin PTA:
- a. To yield up and surrender all of its books and records and all of its assets and property to the Wisconsin PTA or to such agency as may be designated by the Wisconsin PTA or to another local PTA organized under the authority of the Wisconsin PTA;
 - b. To cease and desist from the further use of any name that implies or connotes association with the National PTA or the Wisconsin PTA or status as a constituent organization of the National PTA;
 - c. To carry out promptly, under the supervision and direction of the Wisconsin PTA, all proceedings necessary or desirable for the purpose of dissolving this PTA; and
 - d. To lose its tax exempt status as a local PTA unit organized under the authority of the Wisconsin PTA.
- Section 5. Each officer or board member of a local PTA shall be a member of such local PTA.
- Section 6. Only members of a local PTA who have paid dues for the current membership year may participate in the business of the local PTA.
- Section 7. Each local PTA shall collect dues from its members and shall remit a portion of such dues to the Wisconsin PTA as provided in Article VI hereof.
- Section 8. Each local PTA shall include in its bylaws provisions corresponding to the provisions of state bylaws identified by the number symbol #.

#ARTICLE VI: Membership and Dues

- Section 1. Every individual who is a member of this PTA is, by virtue of that fact, a member of the National PTA and of the Wisconsin PTA by which such local PTA is chartered, and is entitled to all the benefits of such membership.
- Section 2. Membership in PTA shall be made available without regard to race, color, creed, or national origin.
- Section 3. Each local PTA shall conduct an annual enrollment of members but may admit individuals to membership at any time.
- Section 4. Each member of a local PTA shall pay annual dues as may be determined by the organization. The amount of the dues shall include the portion payable to the Wisconsin PTA (the "state portion") – and the portion payable to the National PTA – (the "national portion.")

- Section 5. The amount of the state portion of each member's dues shall be determined by the Wisconsin PTA. The national portion of each member's dues shall be one (1.00) dollar and seventy five cents per annum.
- Section 6. The Wisconsin PTA portion of each member's dues shall be $3.00.
- Section 7. The state and national portions of the dues paid by each member of a local PTA shall be set aside by the local PTA and remitted to the Wisconsin PTA through such channels and at such times as the state PTA bylaws may provide. Each state PTA shall pay to the National PTA the amount of the national portion of dues paid by all members of local PTAs in its area.
- Section 8. The membership year shall be established by the Wisconsin PTA Board of Directors.
- Section 9. The local unit treasurer shall keep the record of the national and state portions of the membership dues separate from the funds of the local PTA.
- Section 10. The state and national portion of the dues paid by each member shall be remitted to the Wisconsin PTA on or before November 1. Additional dues shall be remitted periodically. If, by November 1, a local PTA has failed to remit its first installment of annual dues, it will not be recognized as a PTA in good standing for the current year and further service from the state office may be withheld until such remittance is made.
- Section 11. The remittance to the Wisconsin PTA shall be accompanied by a report, in such form as may be required by the Wisconsin PTA, showing the name and address of the president or co-presidents of the organization, the amount of dues collected during the period covered by the report, and the number of members of the organization.

ARTICLE VII: Officers and Their Election

- #Section 1. Each officer or board member of a local PTA shall be a member of such local PTA.
- Section 2. Officers and their election:
